

The A-CERT SA administration is committed to providing impartial, ethical and professional certification services for Quality Systems and Products, fully satisfying the expressed needs and claims to the benefit of certified ones and all interested parties.

In order to meet this goal, the organization implements programs for the accreditation of certification service.